

News from the centre

Andy with the wonderful vase he made in the pottery room, with a little help from Sue. We think he should take up pottery professionally!

Jeff and Mike Rusbridge, Mayor of Tunbridge Wells, at the opening reception of Headway's exhibition at The White Wall, Tunbridge Wells library in May. Everyone made a contribution to the exhibition of works and concepts reflecting on living with a brain injury.

Kevin and Peter demonstrating their music skills during Arts Week in March.

Flower arranging was amongst the many artistic activities going on during Arts Week. Here is Sue and her friend Myrtle with the centre members who produced wonderful displays of plants and flowers.

Wimbledon week saw our own daily tennis tournament, Wimblewii, using our new wii, donated by the Wealden Walkers group. Here is Rob, the Wednesday winner, proudly holding the winners trophy.

During the lovely but brief spell of hot weather, Angela Boobyer kindly let our centre members loose in her lovely garden. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the day.

On Wednesday 22nd July Pam threw a wonderful lunch party for all the members, volunteers and staff (past and present) to celebrate her MBE.

Holmewood House School was the perfect setting.
